

U .S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
CRIMINAL DIVISION
EXPERIENCED ATTORNEY, GS-14/15

About the Office: The mission of the Criminal Division's Office of Overseas Prosecutorial Development, Assistance and Training (OPDAT) is to develop and administer technical and developmental assistance designed to enhance the capabilities of foreign justice sector institutions and their law enforcement personnel, so they can cooperate more fully with the Department of Justice in combating terrorism, trafficking in persons, organized crime, corruption, and financial crimes.

Responsibilities and Opportunity Offered: The Office seeks an experienced Assistant United States Attorney or Department of Justice Trial Attorney to fill the position of Intermittent Legal Advisor (ILA) in Jakarta, Indonesia focusing on human trafficking. This detail is for a term of three months, with the possibility of a continuation, contingent upon available funding. (This is a reimbursable detail). The ILA will work closely with US and host government officials, as well as members of the international legal community, to enhance cooperation, improve case management, and foster a multi-disciplinary approach to combating human trafficking. DOJ's International Criminal Investigative Training and Assistance Program (ICITAP) has an on-going human trafficking program that provides assistance to Indonesia's police. The ILA will supplement ICITAP's program in the following ways:

- By reviewing laws and procedures and making recommendations to improve them, the ILA will help develop the means to conduct more effective human trafficking investigations and more skillful victim rescue operations, and
- By conducting seminars and roundtable discussions, the ILA will help develop skills necessary for prosecutors to successfully prosecute human traffickers.

Qualifications: Required qualifications: Applicants must possess a J.D. degree, be duly licensed and authorized to practice as an attorney under the laws of a State, territory, or the District of Columbia. Applicants must be a current Department Trial Attorney or Assistant United States Attorney and have at least four or five years of post J.D. experience to be qualified at the GS-14 or 15 level.

Preferred qualifications: Applicants must have excellent interpersonal and management skills, be mature and self-sufficient, communicate effectively orally and in writing, and possess extensive prosecutorial experience in human trafficking cases. Applicants should also be able to work with diverse types of individuals and groups and achieve consensus regarding difficult and multidimensional issues. In addition, international experience, particularly working with foreign law enforcement and justice systems, is a strongly desired asset.

Travel: Periodic travel may be required.

Salary Information: Current salary and years of experience determine the appropriate salary level. (See OPM's Web page at www.opm.gov/oca/payrates/index.htm)

Location: The RLA will be stationed in Jakarta, Indonesia beginning in January 2006.

Relocation Expenses: Relocation expenses are not authorized.
